

JIBREL LIMITED
INVESTMENT PLATFORM FAIR PROCESSING NOTICE

1. About this notice

This fair processing notice ("Notice") explains how and why Jibrel Limited (a Data Controller registered in the Abu Dhabi Global Market as a limited company with registration number 000003048 registered address 24 Sila Tower, 128666, Reem Island, Abu Dhabi, UAE)) (also referred to as "Jibrel", "we", "our" and "us") uses personal data about those individuals that either:

- use our investment platform (the "Platform") to apply for any investment proposition made by a company through the Platform (an "Investment Opportunity");
- communicate with us in relation to the Platform, and Investment Opportunity and other related matters; or
- use our website <https://jibrel.com> (the "Website") in relation to the above;

(in each case, referred to as "you").

You should read this Notice, so that you know what we are doing with your personal data. Please also read any other privacy notices that we make available to you, that might apply to our use of your personal data in specific circumstances outside the scope of this Notice, which primarily concerns our processing of your personal data in relation to or in connection with the Platform.

2. Our data protection responsibilities

In this Notice we refer to the following terms, which have the following meanings:

- "Personal data" is any information that relates to an identifiable natural person. Your name, address and contact details are all examples of your personal data, if they identify you.
- The term "process" means any activity relating to personal data, including, by way of example, collection, storage, use, consultation and transmission.
- Jibrel is a so-called "controller" of your personal data. This means that we make decisions about how and why we process your personal data and, because of this, we are responsible for making sure it is used in accordance with applicable data protection laws.

3. What types of personal data do we collect and where do we get it from?

We collect your personal data from various sources. The table below sets out the different types of personal data that we collect and the sources we collect it from. Typically, you provide us with personal data directly when you communicate with us (including via the Website) and when you seek to make an Investment Opportunity as part of the Platform. We also create some personal data ourselves and obtain some personal data from other sources, (such as when you interact with us on social media platforms, but note that we do not control those platforms and how they process your data, and so we recommend you review their own privacy policies), as set out in the table.

Please be aware that we cannot communicate with you or administer the Platform and your investment with us without your personal data. Where we don't need your personal data, we will make this clear, for instance we will explain if any forms you are required to complete are optional or contain sections that can be left blank.

If any of the personal data you have given to us changes, such as your contact details, please inform us without delay by contacting kyc@jibrel.com.

4. What do we do with your personal data, and why?

We process your personal data for particular purposes in connection with an Investment Opportunity or engagement with us, and the management and administration of our business.

We are required by law to always have a so-called “lawful basis” (i.e. a reason or justification) for processing your personal data. The table below sets out the purposes for which we process your personal data and the relevant lawful basis on which we rely for that processing.

Please note that where we have indicated in the table that our processing of your personal data is either:

- (a) necessary for us to comply with a legal obligation; or
- (b) necessary for us to take steps, at your request, to potentially enter into a contract (including for investment) with you, or to perform it, if you choose not to provide the relevant personal data to us, we may not be able to accept your investment or otherwise provide our services to you.

Please note that these providers may be processing such personal data in their own capacity as a Controller. You should therefore ensure that you have reviewed their fair processing notice in addition to this Notice.

6. Who do we share your personal data with, and why?

Sometimes we need to disclose your personal data to other people.

Outside Jibrel

From time to time we may ask third parties to carry out certain business functions for us, such as IT support. These third parties will process your personal data on our behalf (as our processor). We will disclose your personal data to these parties so that they can perform those functions. Before we disclose your personal data to these third parties, we will seek to ensure that they have appropriate security standards in place to protect your personal data. Examples of these third party service providers include service providers and/or sub-contractors, which include IT systems software and maintenance, back up, and server hosting providers.

In certain circumstances, we will also disclose your personal data to third parties who will receive it as controllers of your personal data in their own right, where:

- (a) we agree to provide certain services at your instruction, whereby your personal data will be shared with a third party provider, so that they can conduct any necessary identity and anti-money laundering checks;
- (b) we buy, sell or transfer our business (or part of it) in connection with a share or asset sale or outsourcing, we may disclose or transfer your personal data to the prospective seller, buyer or transferor and their advisors; and
- (c) we need to disclose your personal data in order to comply with a legal obligation, to enforce a contract or to protect the rights, property or safety of our employees, customers, investors or others.

We have set out below a list of the categories of recipients with whom we are likely to share your personal data:

- (a) IT support, cloud platform and data hosting providers;
- (b) exchanges;
- (c) anti-money laundering and background checking vendors;
- (d) payment processors in relation to your investment with us;
- (e) consultants and professional advisors including legal advisors and accountants;
- (f) courts, court-appointed persons/entities, receivers and liquidators; and
- (g) governmental departments and statutory and/or regulatory bodies.

7. Where in the world is your personal data transferred to?

We may transfer your personal data to external recipients that are established in jurisdictions other than your own.

Please be aware that the data protection laws in some jurisdictions may not provide the same level of protection to your personal data as is provided to it under the laws in your jurisdiction.

We will always seek to ensure that adequate protections are put in place when transferring your personal data to those jurisdictions. For more information regarding the transfers undertaken by us and the protections put in place, please contact us using the details set out at the end of this Notice.

8. How do we keep your personal data secure?

We will take specific steps (as required by applicable data protection laws) to ensure we take appropriate security measures to protect your personal data from unlawful or unauthorised processing and accidental loss, destruction or damage.

9. How long do we keep your personal data for?

We will only retain your personal data for a limited period of time (for example, for so long as you have invested with us plus a period of time following, based on the factors below), and for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which we are processing your personal data. This will depend on a number of factors, including:

- (a) any laws or regulations that we are required to follow;
- (b) whether we are in a legal or other type of dispute with each other or any third party;

- (c) the type of information that we hold about you; and
- (d) whether we are asked by you or a regulatory authority to keep your personal data for a valid reason.

10. How do we communicate with you?

We will use your personal data to communicate with you:

- in relation to any Investment Opportunity you make and to remind you of key events during the fund raise process, for example we may at our discretion notify when an Investment Opportunity is closing.;
- to administer our relationship with you;
- to respond to any questions or complaints that you may have; and
- to invite you to take part in market research, surveys or request feedback on our products and services.

From time to time and with your consent (where required), we will provide you with our newsletter by email, information about other investment opportunities, services, promotions and/or offers which may be of interest to you.

Please note that you may opt-out of receiving the newsletter and any other marketing materials that we send you, by unsubscribing.

11. Cookies

When you visit the Website and Platform, we generate one or more “cookies.”

If you do not agree to our use of cookies, you should set your browser settings accordingly or not use the Website or Platform. Please be aware that if you disable the cookies that we use, this may impact your user experience while using the Website or Platform.

The table below summarizes the different types of cookie we use on the Website and Platform, together with their respective purpose and duration (i.e. how long each cookie will remain on your device).

Two types of cookies may be used on the Website and Platform - "session cookies" and "persistent cookies". Session cookies are temporary cookies that remain on your device until you leave the Website. A persistent cookie remains on your device for much longer or until you manually delete it (how long the cookie remains on your device will depend on the duration or "lifetime" of the specific cookie and your browser settings).

Cookies used on the Website and Platform:

Type of Cookie	What do they do?	Do these cookies collect my personal data / identify me?
Necessary	Cookies that are essential to making the Website and Platform work correctly. They enable visitors to move around our website and use our features. Examples include remembering previous actions (e.g. entered text) when navigating back to a page in the same session.	These cookies do not identify you as an individual. If you do not accept these cookies, it may affect the performance of our website and platform.
Performance	Cookies that help us understand how visitors interact with our web properties by providing information about the areas visited, the time spent on the website and any issues	These cookies don't identify you as an individual. All data is collected and aggregated anonymously.

	encountered, such as error messages. They help us improve the performance of our websites, alert of any concerns and more.
Functionality	Cookies that allow our web properties to remember the choices you make (such as your user name, language or the region you are in) to provide a more personalized online experience.	The information these cookies collect may include personally identifiable information that you have disclosed, such as a username, for example. We shall always be transparent with you about what information we collect, what we do with it and with whom we share it. If you do not accept these cookies, it may affect Website performance and functionality and may restrict access to web content.
Targeting / advertising	Cookies that are used to deliver content that is more relevant to you and your interests. They may be used to deliver targeted advertising or to limit the number of times you see an advertisement. They also help us measure the effectiveness of advertising campaigns on the Website. We may use these cookies to remember websites you have visited and we may share this information with other parties, including advertisers and our agencies.	Most types of these cookies track consumers via their IP address so will collect some personal data.

What are cookies?

Cookies are files or pieces of information that may be stored on your computer (or other internet-enabled devices, such as a smartphone or tablet) when you visit the Website. A cookie will usually contain the name of the website from which the cookie has come from, the "lifetime" of the cookie (i.e. how long it will remain on your device) and a value, which is usually a randomly generated unique number.

What do we use cookies for?

We use cookies to make the Website and Platform easier to use and to better tailor our web presence and products to your interests and needs. Cookies may also be used to help speed up your future activities and experience on the Website and Platform. We also use cookies to compile anonymous, aggregated statistics that allow us to understand how people use our web properties and to help us improve web structure and content. We cannot identify you personally from this information.

How can I control or delete cookies?

Most internet browsers are initially set up to automatically accept cookies. You can change the settings to block cookies or to alert you when cookies are being sent to your device. There are a number of ways to manage cookies. Please refer to your browser instructions or help screen to learn more about how to adjust or modify your browser settings.

If you disable the cookies that we use, this may impact your experience while on the Website. For example, you may not be able to visit certain areas of the Website or Platform.

If you use different devices to view and access the Website and Platform (e.g. your computer, smartphone, tablet etc.), you will need to ensure that each browser on each device is adjusted to suit your cookie preferences.

12. What are your privacy rights and how can you exercise them?

Where our processing of your personal data is based on your consent (please see the tables above), you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time. If you do decide to withdraw your consent we will stop processing your personal data for that purpose, unless there is another lawful basis we can rely on – in which case, we will let you know.

Where our processing of your personal data is based on the legitimate interests (please see the tables above), you can object to this processing at any time. If you do this, we will need to show either a compelling reason why our processing should continue, which overrides your interests, rights and freedoms or that the processing is necessary for us to establish, exercise or defend a legal claim.

Where we are processing your personal data for direct marketing purposes, you have the right to object to that processing.

You have the right to (subject to applicable laws and certain limitations):

- (a) access your personal data and to be provided with certain information in relation to it, such as the purpose for which it is processed, the persons to whom it is disclosed and the period for which it will be stored;
- (b) require us to correct any inaccuracies in your personal data without undue delay;
- (c) require us to erase your personal data;
- (d) require us to restrict processing of your personal data;
- (e) receive the personal data which you have provided to us, in a machine readable format, where we are processing it on the basis of your consent or because it is necessary for your contract with us (please see the tables above) and where the processing is automated; and
- (f) object to a decision that we make which is based solely on automated processing of your personal data (however, we do not currently conduct any such decision making).

If you wish to exercise any of these rights please contact kyc@jibrel.com in the first instance.

You may also have the right to lodge a complaint with the relevant data protection supervisory authority in your jurisdiction.

13. Updates to this Notice

We may update this notice from time to time to reflect changes to the type of personal data that we process and/or the way in which it is processed. We will update you on material changes to this notice. We also encourage you to check this notice on a regular basis – updated copies can be found at: <https://jibrel.com/docs/en/privacy-policy.pdf>

14. Where can you find out more?

If you want more information about any of the subjects covered in this Notice or if you would like to discuss any issues or concerns with us, you can contact support@jibrel.com.
